FINDINGS AND DECISION

This medical fee dispute is decided pursuant to Texas Labor Code §413.031 and all applicable, adopted rules of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers' Compensation.

Background

1. Former 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.305, effective June 3, 1991, 16 Texas Register 2830, sets out the procedures for resolving medical fee disputes.
2. Former 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401, effective August 1, 1997, 22 TexReg 6264, sets out the fee guidelines for acute care inpatient hospital services.
3. Texas Labor Code §413.011 sets forth provisions regarding reimbursement policies and guidelines.

4. This request for medical fee dispute resolution was received by the Division on April 21, 1998.
5. The services in dispute were reduced/denied by the respondent with the following reason codes:
 - F – REDUCTION ACCORDING TO MEDICAL FEE GUIDELINE
 - N – NOT DOCUMENTED

Findings

1. This dispute relates to inpatient services provided in a hospital setting with reimbursement subject to the provisions of Division rule at 28 TAC §134.401, effective August 1, 1997, 22 TexReg 6264. Review of the submitted documentation finds that the length of stay was 4 days. The type of admission is surgical; therefore, the standard surgical per diem amount of $1,118.00 multiplied by the length of stay of 4 days yields a reimbursement amount of $4,472. This amount less the amount paid by the insurance carrier of $4,472.00 leaves an amount due to the requestor of $0.00. No additional payment is recommended.

Conclusion

The Division would like to emphasize that individual medical fee dispute outcomes rely upon the evidence presented by the requestor and respondent during dispute resolution, and the thorough review and consideration of that evidence. After thorough review and consideration of all the evidence presented by the parties to this dispute, it is determined that no additional reimbursement is due. As a result, the amount ordered is $0.00.

ORDER

Based upon the documentation submitted by the parties and in accordance with the provisions of Texas Labor Code §413.031, the Division has determined that the requestor is entitled to $0.00 reimbursement for the disputed services.
